SAGA

SHINING IN THE SHADOW

1991 SAGA
Bloomfield College
Bloomfield, New Jersey

We chose our theme for the 1991 Saga, "Shining in the Shadow," as an update on the Bloomfield College motto, "Lux in Tenebris" — Light in Darkness. We at Bloomfield College do shine. We shine in the shadow of larger schools; in the shadow of ignorance; and in the shadow of prejudice. We have learned that struggling in the shadow of these apparent obstacles does not keep us from shining. Instead, we are encouraged to grow in the face of challenges that surround us.

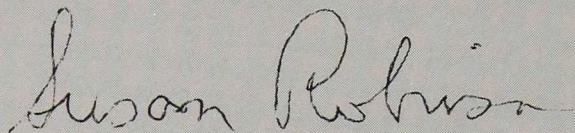

As seniors, we look back at our years at Bloomfield College and find ways in which we began to shine: first as tentative freshmen, then with increasing confidence as our learning progressed. We enter the world now as shining examples of what students at Bloomfield College can achieve, as others have done before us.

To The Class of 1991

In finding a theme for this year's edition of Saga, we chose one that not only reflects the present and future of Bloomfield College but one that shows the past also. We give you "Shining in the Shadow."

Since Bloomfield College is a small school, we are often shadowed by larger schools, yet many of our graduates have achieved success in their fields of studies. We can use them as examples that we, too, can achieve success.

Now it's time for the Class of 1991 to shine! We, the Saga staff, as well as Bloomfield College, stand behind you and wish all of you the best in the future.

Studying... a first step out of the Shadow

VOGUE!

Yeeeeee-yeep!!

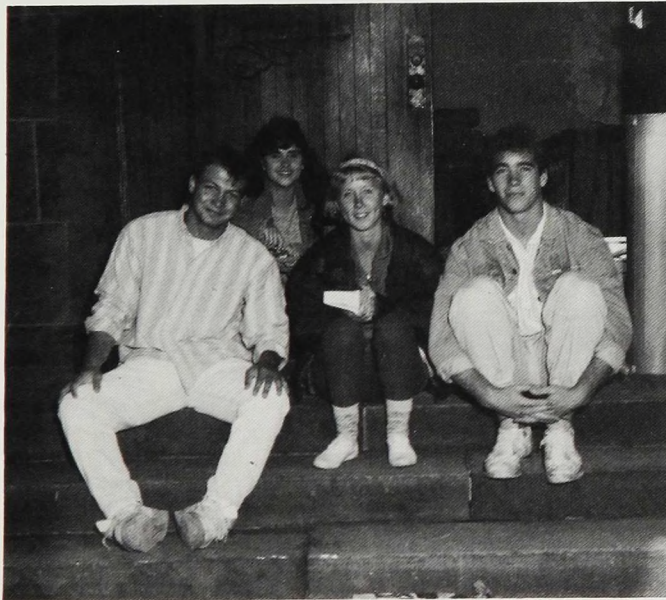

Shanelle is so excited that she just can't hide it!

Dean's List recipients Sylvia Goodwin and Shazonna Monroe with their proud parents.

Breaking ground.

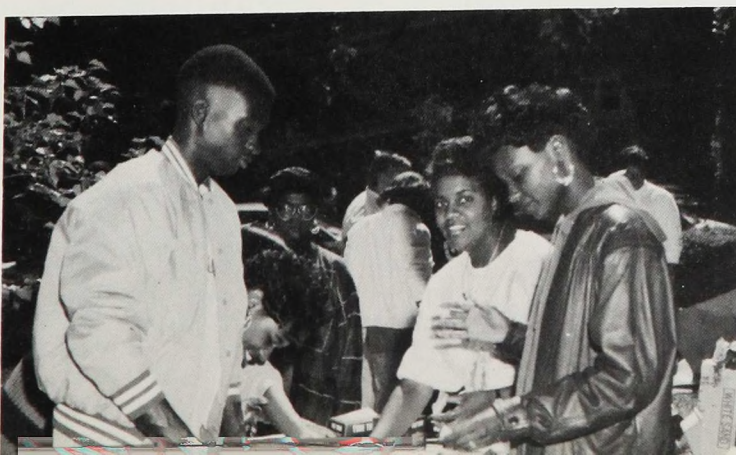

Jeff Rabinowitz, Virginia Escutary, Tricia Taylor and Rob Ressler admire their handiwork.

STEPPING STONES

Stepping Stones shine in the shadow of Westminster Hall. Under the direction of artist Sana Musasama, students embedded pieces of jewelry and pottery into cement. The stones are now a permanent piece of Bloomfield College.

"Water's cold!" decides Aretha Howard as she bends to her creation.

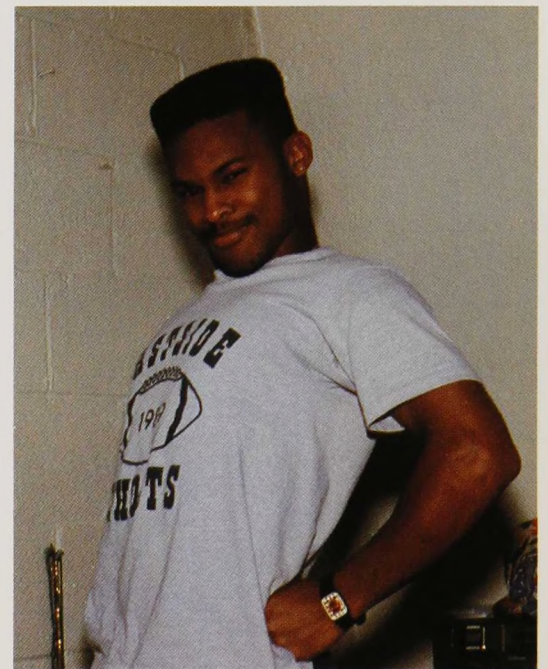

Shawn Fyffe, Monique Olds (bending), Grace Acevedo and Albertina Edmondson discover the creative process.

Barnum & Bailey, look out — the B.C. Circus Troupe is in town.

Yak, yak, yak! Does Donna ever get off the phone?

Reggie Hall — Ladies Man.

President Rob White brings student government to the students.

Thank goodness for the Snack Bar!

See what B.C. school work does to a person?

Iris checks in with her bookie.

The Rogue's Gallery.

Is Gert thirsting for knowledge or is she just thirsty?

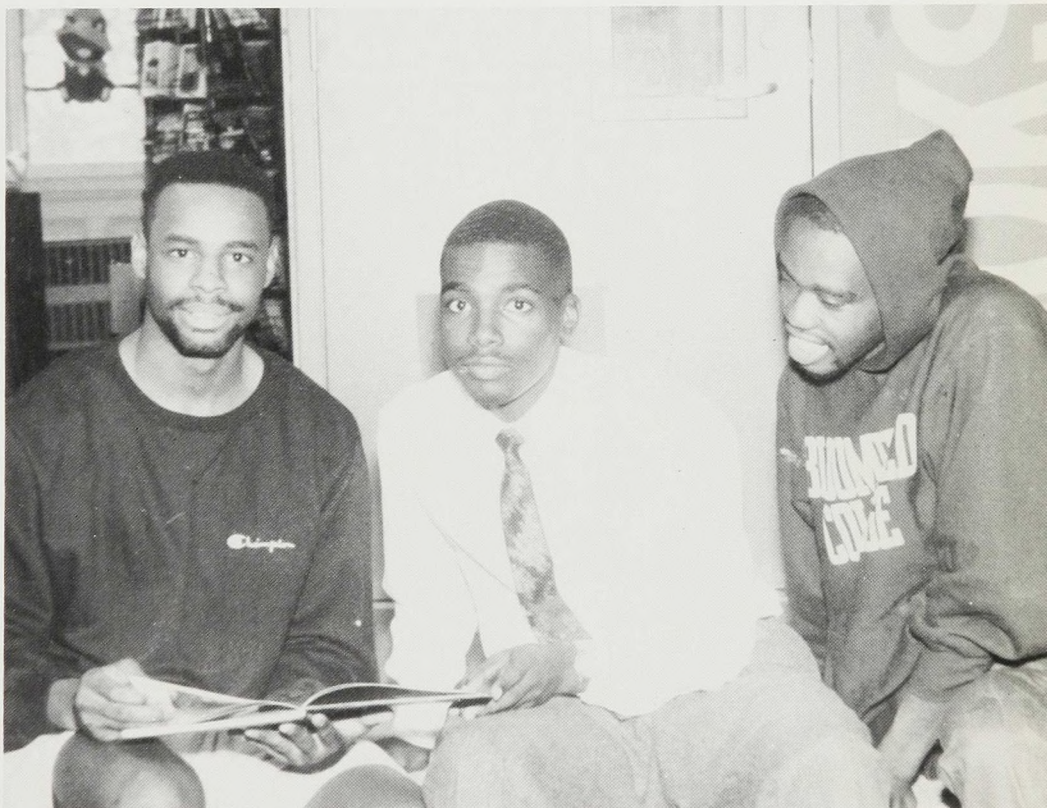

Sisters through & through.

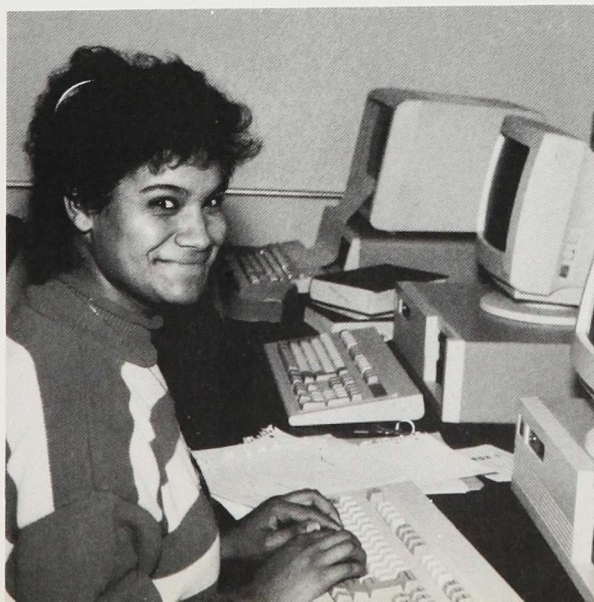

Deneen, show us that graduation smile!

Roberto's impersonation of Minnesota Fats.

What the heck does Malcolm find so interesting that Stick and Lawrence don't?

Joyce manages a grin even though typing a 132 page paper.

HALLOWEEN

No clowning: would Felice Nudelman and Maureen Grant a pardon to Tricky Dick?

Annie Oakley guards a witch and a demon "trespassing" in the bookstore.

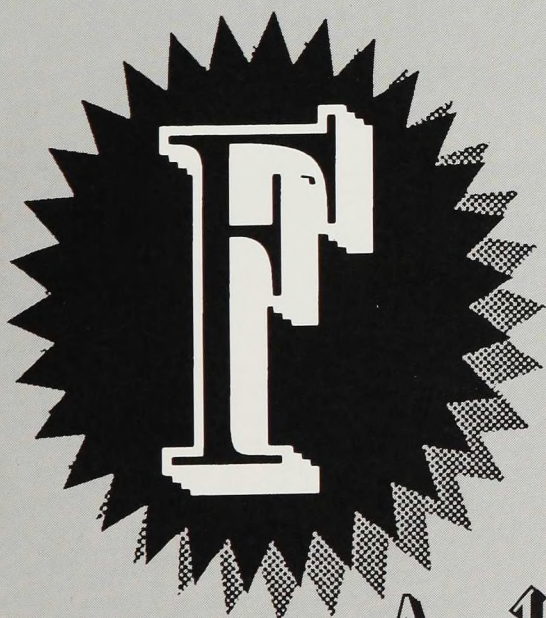

Janna Smith radiates Halloween warmth.

Deneen Culpepper-Hatten is surrounded by guests at the Sigma Gamma Rho party for little people.

Predictions

The Nursing Department will change the color of their uniforms from white to purple in my honor.

Karen J. Archer

I predict that everyone at Bloomfield College will live out its mission.

Deneen Culpepper

I believe that Bloomfield College will expand in size, and continue to grow in knowledge to prepare the students for a better future.

Judith Damotta

I predict that Susan (Sue-Sue) Robinson will eventually own the TAO YUEN CHUEN restaurant. I also predict that if I keep in touch with her, she will be the cause of my insanity.

Sylvia A. Goodwin

Perhaps I will be the next President of Bloomfield College. Smile, Dr. Noonan!

Rosa Harvey

I predict the truth will be revealed about Kaufman!

Minnie Hiller

The Graduates of 1990 & 1991 will continue to have a successful career and graduate education after attending Bloomfield College. I wish the best of luck to everyone at Bloomfield College.

Gloria Kirby

I predict that the people of B.C. will become great leaders, excel at whatever they set forth to do, and remember that B.C. was the place that their minds began to expand.

Dawn C. Lee

For the future, I see Bloomfield College expanding its course of studies and the computer program being among its most popular.

Anola Odle

1995 — Charisse Lyn Tucker will be a 10 time winner on Amateur Night at The Apollo.

1999 — Shanelle Rivera takes over Lisa Caruso's position.

Amanda Reed

I wish the faculty and staff of Bloomfield the best of wishes in their future work for the college's program.

Lillian Rios

I predict that Sylvia A. Goodwin will not go crazy by the time she's thirty if she keeps in touch with me.

Susan Robinson

Craig Wright will become a member of Public Enemy and Kyle Stephens will be a great LAX coach.

Robert E. White, Jr.

Last Will and Testament

KAREN JENINE ARCHER: To Fernande and Stacey, I leave an unlimited supply of Kool-Aid and sugar with someone who will make it. To the Omega Essences, love and happiness. To Desi, my friendship. To Rosita, the ambition to succeed. To all nursing students, luck and confidence. To my brother Kevin, love and success. To all my friends in Sigma Gamma Rho, a better house that is all blue and gold.

DENEEN CULPEPPER: To my Sorors of Sigm Gamma Rho, Inc., Gamma Theta Chapter, I leave you with my final Yeep. So Ye-eeep out in peace my sisters.

BEVERLY DESBIENS: I bequeath all of my oral report anxiety attacks to Bernie and my fun times to Duke.

JUDITH DAMOTTA: To the future Senior classes, I leave my desire for you to have the opportunity that I had to study abroad and experience the new environment. God bless you all.

SYLVIA ALICA GOODWIN: I, Sylvia A. Goodwin, leave professors Collmier, Michailidis, and Tomlinson BEHIND!!

ROSE HARVEY: Mimi and Tarchar, the two of you are the GREATEST! Dean Washington (Maurice), you are the BEST boss that anyone could work with because you are caring and understanding. Thanks for believing in me.

MINNIE HILLER: To the mature evening students, I leave to you the snack machines.

GLORIA KIRBY: Congratulations to the Classes of December 1990, May 1991, and my girlfriend Lashun for being the best friend I had at Bloomfield College during the 1986- 1990 school years.

DAWN COLETTE LEE: I would like to leave to Angela Wilson a caring thought: Of all the people I've met during my recent studies at B.C., yours was a lasting impression.

ANOLA ODLE: To the classes of '92, '93, and '94, I leave the caring, patient, and friendly nature of Professor Fishman.

AMANDA REED: To Vilmarie Jiminez, a truckload of faith and serenity. To Andy Shima, an appointment for a haircut. To Dr. Carey, a warning: I'll be back in 15 years for your job.

LILLIAN RIOS: Anybody heard of Dunkheim? Yes Kaufman, I get the message. Best wishes for Professor Kaufman.

SUSAN ROBINSON: I leave Tamanni Gilbert and Felicia Capers my favorite library table for the many accounting classes ahead.

ROBERT E. WHITE, JR.: I leave to Craig Wright, a one-way ticket to Maryland and to Kyle Stephens my lacrosse skills.

Volleyball

FRONT: Sakina Hayes, Cherinande Lovius, Natacha LaFortune, Elva Sibrian, Mia Braithwaite. BACK: Coach Shelia Wooten, Tania Reynolds, Delcenia Scott, Carolann Din, Linda Arena, Dawn Daura.

The 1990 version of the Lady Deacons volleyball team was sparked by first-year head coach and assistant athletic director, Sheila Welch-Wooten. Welch-Wooten, a 1985 Bloomfield College graduate, coached the Lady Deacons to a 4-18 record, for more wins than in 1989.

"It was a great year in terms of enthusiasm and attitude on behalf the players and the school," said Welch-Wooten. We had some local recognition for some players and made a name for ourselves on the court."

The team started off slowly but pulled things together midway through the season with the leadership of senior Linda Arena and junior Dawn Daura. Both Arena and Daura earned All-District 31 and Jersey Nine All-Volleyball tournament team honors.

Other returning players who helped provide leadership were junior Carol Ann Dinn, junior Fernande Archer, junior Donna Langford, sophomore Elva Sibrian, sophomore Delcenia Scott.

Top newcomers were sophomore Mia Braithwaite, freshman Sakina Hayes, freshman Natacha La Fortune and freshman Cherinande Lovius.

"With the type of effort displayed this past year, I can't wait to get back on the court and show teams how we have improved," said Welch-Wooten.

SOCCER PROGRAM

HEADED IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

The 1990 Bloomfield College soccer program got a shot in the arm this past season when the athletic program named Ralph Dougan their head coach. Dougan, the former Executive Director of the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, took over for Robert Nichols who retired after 36 years of coaching at the school. In his first season, Dougan and assistant coach Phil Santamassino guided the Deacons to a 3-10-1 record.

This year's squad was boosted by the play of goalie Scott Downs and Michael Cooper. Downs, a senior from Lawrenceville, NJ, was named to the 1990 All-Jersey Nine Men's Soccer Team and honorable mention All-New Jersey State Division III College Soccer Team. Cooper, a junior midfielder from Harrison, NJ, was named to the 1990 All-NAIA District 31 Team and joins Downs on the honorable mention All-New Jersey State Division III College Soccer Team.

Lady Deacons Finish Season 23-6

The best way to describe the Lady Deacon's 1990-91 basketball season: "IT CAME IN LIKE A LION AND WENT OUT LIKE A LAMB."

After jumping out to a 17-1 record in late January, the Lady Deacons were slowed down by the likes of Georgian Court and St. Thomas Aquinas and ended up losing their last three games of the regular season (23-6), dropping out of first place in the CACC.

"In reality you can say I coached two different seasons," said head coach Don Manfria. "We came out of the gates like gang busters and at one point sported a 22-2 record. But then we dropped the last three games of the season and headed into the District 31 tourney short of our goals."

But when you add up the numbers . . . it was another successful year for Manfria, his coaching staff and the Lady Deacons, who were ranked No. 23 in the country at one time this season. Nationally ranked by the NAIA, Bloomfield finished the season ranked No. 4 in team scoring (90.18), No. 15 in team scoring margin (18.1), and No. 3 in team rebounding percentage (.606).

Individually it was the "M & M" connection that provided the spark all year both offensively and defensively. DANA MORTON (Bloomfield, N.J.) and CARLI MITCHELL (Irvington, N.J.) made national headlines and led the team in almost every statistical category. Both Morton and Mitchell were named to this year's All-District 31 and All-CACC team.

Bright Future for Deacon Basketball

The Bloomfield College men's basketball team finished the 1990-91 season at 13-18. On the surface, that's not a great record. However, if you look at the 1989-90 season, one in which the Deacons finished 7-20, you have to say head coach Bruce Gallagher and his coaching staff made great strides and Gallagher did an excellent job with a team that had only one senior.

That one senior was MARK TELLECHEA (Miami, FL) who led the team in scoring with a 15.2 ppg average. Tellechea, a 6'-7" center who transferred to Bloomfield after his sophomore year from Liberty University (Va.), also finished second on the team with a 5.9 rpg average, second in field goal percentage (.541) and number one in free throw percentage (.736).

Tellechea, who was the team's leading scorer 14 times throughout the season, was named to the All-CACC team this year for his outstanding performance.

The youth movement at Bloomfield College will miss Mark's leadership and determination next season.

Softball

It's been a new-look women's softball team at Bloomfield College this season, with the Lady Deacons looking to improve on their 29-11 record of 1990 and hoping to make their third consecutive trip to the NAIA Nationals.

Taking over as head coach is former assistant coach Mike Schiro. This year's team has been led by two-time All District 31 team senior Linda Arena and junior Dawn Daura, also selected for the All-District 31 team. Joining Arena in the infield is newcomer Sue Cackowski at shortstop, junior Michelle Vazquez at second and Cindi Ruggiero at first.

Pitching responsibilities fell to freshman Kelly McCormick, a former All-New Jersey State pitcher. Senior Dana Jones became the designated hitter, having hit .350 two years running. The outfield has been led by sophomores Marisol Ruiz, Melanie Bera and Sandy Cumiskey. Other outfielders: Carolann Din, juniors Michelle Ruddock and Tracey Ninivaggi, and sophomore Dawn Williams.

Newcomers Natalie Hatchette, Mary Lucas and Dina Segro, all freshmen, round out the team.

Head coach Al Restaino faced his fifth season as mentor of the B.C. baseball program with 14 letterwinners returning. The team also has been bolstered by some top newcomers and two new coaches, Rick Weinstein and Mark Wright.

The 1991 Deacon infield has been led by senior third baseman Matt D'Amato, last year's team MVP and this year's captain. Newcomer Michael Slotovitch added to the infield lineup of Jose Columna (shortstop), junior Andy Castro and senior Doug Marshall. Carl DiMasi returns to first base.

Former All-New Jersey junior Kerry Rickert, twice All-District 31 player, championed the infield, along with sophomore Andy Glueck and senior captain David Backo. Adding depth were newcomers Sal Tremmel, freshman, and sophomore Mark Parso.

The solid "mound core" consisted of senior ace Mark Malone, District 31 and All-CACC player; senior Rob Sasso; All-Jersey Nine player for 1990 Bryan Shortino; senior Tom Trepasso; and Jerry Scarnaty, last year's freshman MVP. Junior Daniel Valdez, Colin Comiskey and Eric Marcado were new additions this season. Handling these "mound aces" was junior Mike DiBiase.

Under the direction of second year head coach Roland Gagné, the B.C. Lacrosse Team entered the 1991 season with a record 10 freshmen on the squad. At press time, the team has fielded a record of 2 wins and 3 losses against some talented competition. The remainder of the schedule should prove to be a better test of the team's skills. Due to graduation and transfers, the team had quite a different look than in the past.

Captains Kyle Stephens and Frank Hoffman led a team that consisted of only two juniors and two sophomores. The bulk of the unit consisted of freshmen. Stephens led the midfield play along with freshman Bobby Ressler and sophomores

Craig Lay and Tom Neigh. On the offensive side of the ball, Hoffman was joined by freshman transfer Mike McGovern and sophomore Felix Torres.

Defensively, the Deacons were led once again by junior Andy Schaeffer. He was joined on the back line by freshman Bill McLean, freshman Rick Card, junior Ken Gilman and sophomores Dan Dunn and Skippy Staniewicz.

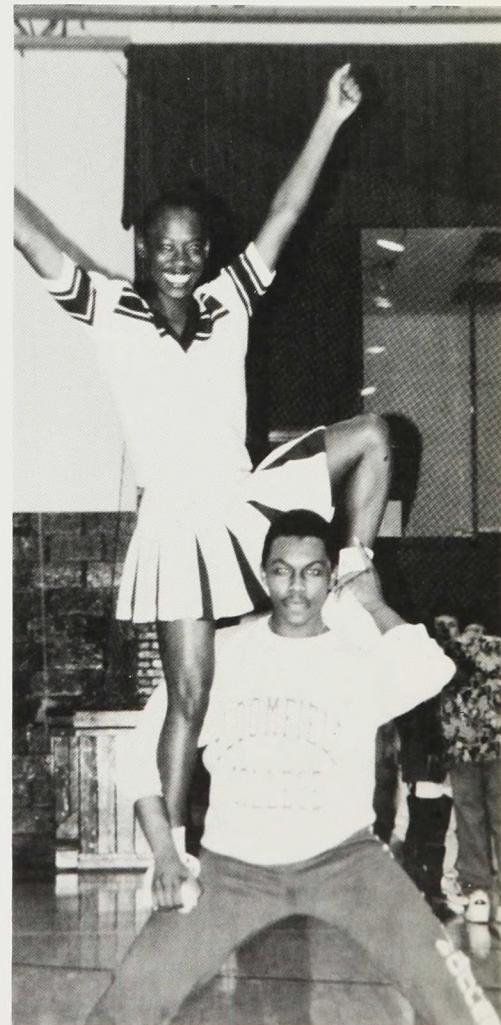

Once again, the team would like to thank volunteer Assistant Coaches Doug Morton and Sal Veneziano for their dedication and guidance. The team looks forward to a promising 1992 season with the nucleus of the 1991 team remaining intact.
